Which TUMI project are you?

TUMI is based on three pillars: innovation, knowledge, funding. We support innovative pilot projects around the world (see left). We share knowledge with planners about modern mobility concepts, in workshops and conferences. We invest in the construction and modernisation of sustainable urban infrastructure.

Innovation. Knowledge. Investment.

TUMI – this is the union of prestigious partners from business, politics and society, united in one goal: changing mobility for the benefit of people and the environment, with a view to the future. TUMI supports transport projects all around the world and passes on know-how to policy makers. We believe in clean mobility in thriving cities.
